

Great Britain Tang Soo Do Assoc.

Safeguarding Students

- All Instructors have a duty to keep young people (up to the age of 18 years) safe and to protect them from sexual, physical and emotional harm.
- Students have a right to be safe and to be treated with respect and dignity.
- It follows that trusted adults are expected to take reasonable steps to ensure the safety and well being of students.
- The Duty of Care is, in part, exercised through the development of respectful caring and professional relationships between instructors and students, with behaviour by instructors that demonstrates integrity, maturity and good judgement.

If you have any concerns regarding this please advise your instructor in the first instance. However if that is not appropriate please advise the Association Lead Child Protection Officer.
